Holyoke JV 37, Wray 33

Holyoke claimed an early lead, 12-5 in the first quarter Friday night, but the Eagles outscored the local girls 13-10 in the second to diminish the Dragon lead to 22-20 at halftime.

Heading into the final quarter, Wray had made it a one-point game, trailing 30-31. Neither team was strong in the final quarter, but the Dragons managed six points to Wray's three to take the 37-33 win.

A good, balanced scoring effort was seen by the Lady Dragons, with eight girls making it into the scoring column.

Bennett led with 11 points, Gerk nine (with one three-pointer), Fricke five, Shelby Beavers four and Duester, Vasa, Varela and Groshans had two apiece.
