Holyoke's 29th annual Community Night, sponsored and hosted by Holyoke Chamber of Commerce, received a good turnout Monday night, March 12 at Holyoke High School.

The event saw 350 people enjoy the free meal while also visiting the many tables and organizations. Contributors to the meal and scrip prizes were Seaboard Foods, FBLA members, Grainland Cooperative, MV Equipment, Scholl Oil and Transportation, Highline Electric Association, Holyoke Marketplace, Ag Power Equipment Company, Holyoke General Store and Holyoke Enterprise. Melissa Memorial Hospital staff helped serve the meal.

Who needs a table? Hailey, Rebekkah and Chad St. Martin took to the bleachers to enjoy their meal
Monday night during Community Night at Holyoke High School.

—Enterprise photo

Nearly every booth around the school offered some type of drawing and prizes.

Chamber scrip drawing winners were Emily Jelden, $25 youth winner and Connie Holtzman, $50 adult.

Holyoke Chamber's annual Community

Mondays night. Kaden Hans

barbecue sauce.