 The Holyoke Lady Dragon varsity basketball team had a tough weekend with two losses to Wray and Burlington on Feb. 6 and 7.

 "The girls played very hard in both games but couldn't come away with a win," said coach Arlan Scholl. While there were positive aspects of each game, Scholl noted they struggled with making some k ey shots during each game.

 e pointed out the team is improving, and he is pleased with the progress they have made so far this season.

 he Lady Dragons find themselves in a tough series of games. Scholl said it's not often they play Wray, the number one ranked 2A team, on Friday and then turn around to play Caliche, the number one ranked 1A team, the following Thursday. "This level of competition should continue to help our team improve for our post season run," said Scholl.
