

NJC graduates 17 RNs

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

□ Northeastern Junior College in Sterling recently held a special graduation and pinning ceremony for 17 registered nurses. Graduates included Megan Hensley and Jessica Koberstein of Holyoke and Jessica Skomp of Lamar, Neb. Deana O’Gorman of Holyoke also assisted with the ceremony.

□ The RNs are now trained and eligible to set for the state registered nurse board exam to become full-fledged RNs. This is NJC’s second class to complete the expanded nursing program’s Associate Degree Nursing Program.
