

Museum hosts antique appraisal

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Phillips County Museum hosted an antique appraisal Sunday, Aug. 15. A number of people of all ages, from both Holyoke and out of town, brought a variety of items. Lloyd Michael, of Michael Auction Service in Julesburg, was the appraiser for the afternoon. He eagerly viewed the antiques, offering a high and low range of each item's estimated value. He shared tips and stories for collectors, encouraging the continuation of their collections. Antiques showed ranged from the Life Magazine, pictured above, to china,

Museum hosts antique appraisal

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

glassware, books and toys. —Enterprise photo