

Gone fishin'

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Approximately 15 kids hit Holyoke Lions Club Fishing Pond Friday, May 24 for a four-hour fishing camp put together by Colorado Parks and Wildlife and Phillips County Extension Office.

Kristin Vieselmeyer practices casting from the dock.

—Enterprise photo

Aimee Ryel from Colorado Parks and Wildlife was on hand to help kids learn the correct way to take care of equipment, how to bait a fishing hook, how to properly cast and some basic safety rules.

Gone fishin'

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

When the fishing season is over, try to book the last fish before the