Phillips County Arts Council will kick off the 2013-14 concert series membership drive this weekend at Dandelion Daze. Information about the upcoming season will be available at their booth at the courthouse lawn.

A kick-off concert is being planned for the fall, with the date to be announced later. Also on the 2013-14 line-up are:

—the Abrams Brothers, a renowned Canadian bluegrass band hosted on Sunday, Nov. 3.

—“Thank You for the Music—A Modern Tribute to ABBA,” an exciting and dynamic tribute to the Swedish group ABBA, taking the stage Friday, March 14, 2014.

—Mack Bailey, a folk music singer, coming to Holyoke Thursday, April 24, 2014.

A fifth concert will be announced at a later date. The Abrams Brothers and A Tribute to ABBA will also be performing student outreaches in the schools.
