

Gymnasts make the last pass at M&K Gymnastics

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Forty-five gymnasts performed in “The Last Pass” as students of M&K Gymnastics at a Tuesday, Aug. 6 program in the HHS auditorium.

Instructors Megan Garrett and Kendra Timm started teaching gymnastics when they were sophomores in high school six years ago. They’ve continued sharing their knowledge and love of the sport to area youth.

Three members of the “Can’t Hold Us” group turn themselves inside out as they perform in Tuesday night’s program. The trio is pictured from left, Mylee Dirks, Marren Dirks and Kinsley Koberstein. —Enterprise photo

However, due to their college schedules, they will not be able to continue, so this marks the last season for M&K Gymnastics.

Eight different groups demonstrated their skills in a lively program last week. Sparkling, colorful outfits, big smiles and rockin’ music added to the entertainment.

Read the full story! Call the Enterprise about an e-subscription at 970-854-2811.

Holyoke Enterprise August 15, 2013