Phillips County 4-H members who qualified for a chance to exhibit at the Colorado State Fair in Pueblo have a lot to be proud of.

Twenty-five projects from Phillips County were entered in the 4-H general project show. Three projects will be bringing home Grand Champion ribbons, while one project earned Reserve Grand Champion.

Tanley Anderson took overall junior GC honors for her unit 1 weeds project. Anna Jelden was overall intermediate GC in clothing construction for her unit 27 project. Christopher Durbin was overall junior GC in sportfishing for his unit 1 project.

Cole LeBlanc was overall intermediate RGC in bicycle for his unit 1 project.
