

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Retirement open house for Loesch Sunday

An open house and retirement party for Jan Loesch, executive director of A Caring Pregnancy Resource Center for the past 10 years, will be held Sunday, Sept. 22 from 2-4 p.m. at SunSet View, east room. Those attending will also have the opportunity to meet the center's new director, Matt Ross.

FCA kicks off with supporter rally Monday

Fellowship of Christian Athletes invites community members to their annual FCA Fan Rally Monday, Sept. 23 at 6:30 p.m. at the Peerless Center gym. It's a chance for FCA to thank their supporters, give a rundown of the year's events and explain what the group is all about to anyone interested.

FCA is a nondenominational Christian youth group for students in grades 7-12. For more information, contact Darci Tomky at 970-580-3272 or dtomky@gmail.com.

Blood drive is Wednesday

A Holyoke community blood drive is set for next Wednesday, Sept. 25 from noon-5:30 p.m. at Holyoke Lions Club, 109 N. Campbell. For more information or to schedule an appointment, contact Bonfils Appointment Center at 800-365-0006, opt. 2 or visit www.bonfils.org.

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

HVFD responds to crash

A single-vehicle rollover accident approximately two miles west of Holyoke was the reason for the siren Thursday, Sept. 12 at 8:40 p.m.

Holyoke Volunteer Fire Department assisted EMS at the scene. No extrication was needed.

Holyoke Enterprise September 19, 2013