

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Items for flood victims sought

Holyoke High School's leadership class is doing a community service project, asking the community to contribute non-perishable food, water, toiletries, clothes, etc. for flood victims in Colorado. Items may be dropped off at the high school.

No school Mon.

Students in Holyoke schools will get a break from classes Monday, Sept. 30 due to a teacher inservice.

Holyoke Enterprise September 26, 2013