An abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables filled Holyoke Elementary School gym Saturday, Oct. 19 at the inaugural Bountiful Baskets distribution event. Coordinator Kay Harmon said the Holyoke community reserved 41 baskets to be picked up from the new food co-op. This time, each basket contained six fruits and six vegetables, but the kinds of produce will vary each time.

Above, Jill Duester and LaVonne Andersen transfer their produce from the baskets to their own container to take home and enjoy.
