

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Dodgeball tourney is Friday at HHS

The community is invited to the National Honor Society's dodgeball tournament Friday, Nov. 15 at 7 p.m. at the HHS gym. All proceeds will benefit the Kurtis Huss Memorial.

Parade entries sought for Country Christmas

"It's a Prairie Christmas" is the theme of Holyoke's annual Country Christmas Monday, Dec. 2. Those wishing to enter a Parade of Lights float should pick up a form at Highline Electric or PC Telcom.

Forms are due by Friday, Nov. 29 to Mark Smith at PC Telcom.

Entries are judged on originality/creativity, decorative effort and lighting display, and Chamber Scrip is up for grabs as prize money. Judging begins at 6 p.m. on Dec. 2 with the parade running down Interoccean at 6:30 p.m.

Reserve spots at Kids Holiday Sat., Nov. 23

Kids should sign up now for the Kids Holiday Saturday, Nov. 23 from 1-4 p.m. at the Peerless Center. The first 60 kids that pre-pay will get the opportunity to decorate a gingerbread house and see "The Santa Clause 2" in the theater with a snack.

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

This event is sponsored by Holyoke Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with CSU Extension. Contact the Chamber at 970-854-3517 or at their office in the Peerless Center to sign up or for more information.

Holiday writings due Tuesday

The Enterprise is looking for original creative writings and poetry for its special Christmas section this year. Deadline for submissions is Tuesday, Nov. 19 to the Enterprise office at 130 N. InterOcean or newsholent@chase3000.com.

Siren sounds for suspected gas leak

The Holyoke Volunteer Fire Department responded to a reported gas leak at 526 S. Baxter Ave. Saturday, Nov. 9 at 9:45 a.m. HVFD found no leak and turned the scene over to SourceGas.

Holyoke Enterprise November 14, 2013

Around Town

Written by Holyoke Enterprise
