

SafeCare program is coming to Phillips Co.

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Baby Bear Hugs is excited to announce that they have received a grant through the Colorado Department of Human Services to deliver the SafeCare program.

SafeCare Colorado is a parent skills training program that covers parent-infant or parent-child interactions, home safety and child health. It is delivered through home visits to high-risk families with children 0-5 years old.

Home visitors who have education or experience in parenting, education, home visiting and other related fields will be trained in the SafeCare Colorado program and will meet with families to provide them with this parent skills training and support.
