

The Enterprise looks back at top news stories of 2013

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Jan. 3

Precipitation for 2012 showed only 10.34 total inches for the year.

Melissa Memorial Hospital serves as a beta site for a new version of the Electronic Medical Record with NextGen.

An ordinance was adopted by the Phillips County Board of Commissioners preventing the production and retail sale of marijuana in Phillips County.

Jan. 10

Newman Adventures offers guided pheasant hunts and lodging on a preserve southwest of Holyoke.

The City Council adopts marijuana, parking and nuisance ordinances.

Jackie Reynolds returns to Holyoke as the Phillips County Social Services director after serving as the director of Rural Solutions in Sterling for six years.

Harlan Stern and Don Lock are sworn in as Phillips County commissioners, replacing Jerry Beavers and Bud Bieseimer, who chose not to seek re-election.

The Enterprise looks back at top news stories of 2013

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Heating, ventilation, air conditioning and refrigeration services are brought to northeast Colorado by Ken Hoch of Hoch LLC.

Jan. 17

First Baptist Church moves to the new facility at 1000 E. Johnson St.

Residents can register cell phones and email addresses to receive emergency alerts about the county.

Savanna Krueger takes first in the District Voice of Democracy speech competition.

Kyle Arnoldy joins the Holyoke Enterprise staff, filling the reporter position previously held by Chris Lee.

Erin Vieselmeyer scores 31 points to help defeat the Wiggins basketball team 49-21.

The Enterprise looks back at top news stories of 2013

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Enterprise looks back at top news stories of 2013

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

That for the State of Florida West Park 2013 One of the biggest news stories of the year was the opening of the newly renovated West Park in Holyoke. The park features a new playground, a picnic shelter, and a new restroom.

Local Girl Wins 2013 Paralympic Competition A local girl, Kaitlyn, won the 2013 Paralympic competition in the 100-meter race. She was the only Holyoke athlete to compete in the Paralympics.

Local Girl Wins 2013 Paralympic Competition A local girl, Kaitlyn, won the 2013 Paralympic competition in the 100-meter race. She was the only Holyoke athlete to compete in the Paralympics.