

Holyoke blanketed by snow

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke residents woke up to 4.5 inches of fresh snow Friday morning, Jan. 31. Snow fell from the sky with little wind, blanketing streets, yards and sidewalks with the soft powder. Before the snow and ice had a chance to melt, more snow began to fall as a snowstorm moved through town Tuesday, Feb. 4.☐☐☐

—Enterprise photo

Holyoke Enterprise February 6, 2014