

Holyoke program set for National Day of Prayer May 1

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

“One Voice, United in Prayer” is the theme for the 2014 National Day of Prayer, with a local event bringing together community members Thursday, May 1 at 7 p.m. at the Peerless Theatre in Holyoke.

According to the event’s website, nationaldayofprayer.org, this 63rd annual National Day of Prayer will have profound significance for the country, as an unprecedented opportunity for people to see the Lord’s healing and renewing power made manifest as citizens are called on to humbly go before his throne.

The theme emphasizes the need for individuals, corporately and individually, to place their faith in the unfailing character of their creator, who is sovereign over all governments, authorities and men.

To further highlight the theme, National Day of Prayer has chosen Romans 15:6 as the Scripture for this year: “So that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Holyoke Enterprise April 24, 2014