

Irrigation workshop to be held April 7

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

An irrigation workshop will be held Saturday, April 7 at Ballyneal Golf Course beginning at 10 a.m.

Participants will get to learn about designing a home irrigation system and have the opportunity to ask about home irrigation problems. Additionally, participants will get the opportunity to do some hands-on work with Ballyneal's vegetable, flower and nursery area.

Ted Simmons will be teaching the class with assistance from horticulturist Linda Langelo.

The first hour of the workshop will be in lecture format with the second hour giving people hands-on experience and practice.

For more information, contact Langelo at 854-3616.
