- Colorado Department of Agriculture is accepting listings for the 2009 Colorado Hay Directory. This annual publication markets Colorado hay to buyers in the state and around the country.
- “First published in 1987, the directory continues to be an important marketing tool for Colorado hay producers,” said Wendy White, marketing specialist for the Colorado Department of Agriculture.
- There is a listing fee and the deadline is June 15. Forms are available at Colorado State University Extension offices or by contacting the Colorado Department of Agriculture.
- This free directory will be available in August through CSU Extension offices and various livestock associations in the state as well as at agricultural events such as the Colorado State Fair, National Western Stock Show and the Colorado Farm Show. The directory will also be online at www.coloradoagriculture.com and www.coloradohay.org.
