

FBLA networks at fall conference

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke FBLA chapter attended the Fall Leadership Conference in Sterling last Wednesday, Oct. 9.

A greeting was conducted by state president Zac Copeland of Fleming High School, District 3 representative Denise Cano of Idalia High School and District 4 representative Allison Shaefer of Haxtun High School. The opening session was introduced by Brittani Parker of Oklahoma and was continued by keynote speaker Patrick Grady of Tennessee.

The purpose of the conference's opening session was to inform FBLA members about effective networking. Grady introduced icebreaker techniques and networking activities to students from across the districts.

To read more of this article, contact the Enterprise office about an e-Subscription. 970-854-2811

Holyoke FBLA members who attended the Fall Leadership Conference in Sterling are pictured from left, front row, adviser Chuck Hurst, Morgan Philips, Kayla Marshall, Federica Detomas, Whitney Powell, Dani Brandt, Malena McWilliams, Anastasia Conklin, Shaylee Krueger, Meg Strauss, Alex Strauss, Brook Prottsman, Logan Tharp, Trevor Dalton, Alyssa Killin, Adi Bencomo, Peyton Dittmer, Eric Rojo, Xander Nelson, Austin Herman and Jesus A. Martinez; second row, at right, Audi Peña, Tia Huffman and Fernando Rojo; and top row, Kaetlynn Overton (in back), Lori McWilliams, Kaylee Ham (in front), Kaitlyn Shafer, Tara Krueger, Rosa Ochoa, A.J. Brandt, T.J. Gertner, Zachary

FBLA networks at fall conference

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Churchwell, Tyler Camblin, Alan Madrid, Tito Fierro, Javier Rojo and Saul Ramos.

Holyoke Enterprise October 17, 2013