

FFA members experience Kentucky at National FFA

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Six Holyoke FFA members attended the 86th National FFA Convention Oct. 28-Nov. 2 in Louisville, Ky.

HHS students who experienced the national meeting were Wyatt Bishop, Kelsey Kramer, Josilyn Lutze, Nick Ortner, Sidney Struckmeyer and Austin Vieselmeyer along with chapter adviser Clay Christensen.

The convention kicked off with an opening session, including a laser show and keynote speaker Rick Pitino.

At other general sessions, students also enjoyed keynote speaker Katie Pratt from the U.S. Farmers and Ranchers Alliance as well as retiring addresses from FFA eastern region vice president Joenelle Futrell, secretary Kalie Hall and president Clay Sapp.
