

Locals compete in Prospect Show

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Three locals represented Holyoke well at the Prospect Show Saturday, Jan. 25 at the National Western Stock Show in Denver.

Holyoke seventh-grader Kaylee Camblin earned first place in her class with her steer.

Freshman Tyler Camblin showed his steer for fourth-place honors in his class.

A second and third place were awarded to second-grader Cash Weber for his two steers.

Holyoke Enterprise February 6, 2014