Effective March 1, Mike Grauberger has been appointed the new chief financial officer and Steve Kaiser will be the new vice president of lending for the Sterling branch of Premier Farm Credit.

Grauberger was most recently the vice president of lending in the Sterling branch, where he led the branch to record levels of growth and credit quality. In addition, he has been an integral member of the association's management team and asset liability committee.

He has over 27 years of experience in the Farm Credit system, with much of that time in Sterling.

Kaiser has been serving as a senior loan officer in the Sterling lending office, handling a very large and complex credit portfolio. He has over 22 years of lending experience, 21 of it with Premier Farm Credit.
