

Health pro scholarship available

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

The Centennial Area Health Education Center in conjunction with the Central Area Health Education Center are accepting applications for the 2014 Colorado Health Professions Scholarship program.

This is a two-year scholarship to assist enrolled graduate level health profession students by paying for a significant portion of their education.

Target groups for the scholarship include enrolled nurse practitioners, physician assistants and behavioral health students and/or other types of medical degrees.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811 for details!

Holyoke Enterprise April 17, 2014