It was a tough first night for the Holyoke Dragons as they traveled east to Imperial, Neb. for their first game of the season. After going scoreless in the first half, the Dragons battled back to outscore their opponent in the second half. But it wasn't enough as they suffered their first loss of the season, 22-35.

Coach Rod Trumper said his team was uptight and nervous in the first half but came out and did exactly what they needed to do in the second.

Both teams had trouble getting anything going on offense during the first quarter. The first score of the game came with only 24 seconds left on the clock. Imperial's Steven Fish gave the Longhorns the lead 7-0 with the first touchdown of the night.

Holyoke's first possession of the second quarter resulted in a punt with 9:04 left on the clock. Imperial's next score came with just over three minutes left in the half giving them a 14-0 advantage.

The Dragon offense again couldn't get anything going and was forced to punt with two and a half minutes left. Imperial capitalized with their third touchdown of the half. This time it was with five ticks left on the clock.

Coach Trumper and his squad headed into the locker room down 21-0.

Holyoke was again forced to punt on their first possession of the second half. Imperial took the punt for a long return but luckily for the Dragons it was called back due to a penalty. Imperial was unable to do anything with the ball giving it back to the Dragons.

Imperial took the ball in the fourth and answered the Dragon touchdown when Michael May scored with just over 11 minutes left in the game. Less than a minute later, Holyoke answered with another touchdown. Krueger found Ryan Baumgartner open for a 38-yard touchdown pass. Carper added the two-point conversion and the scoreboard read 35-22.

After trading scoreless series, Holyoke tried a successful fake punt with just over six minutes left. Cumming took the ball giving the Dragons a first down.

Krueger connected with Baumgartner again, this time for 20 yards moving Holyoke into the red zone. With 3:57 showing on the clock, Holyoke was forced to go for it on fourth down. Imperial's Misaal Garcia ended the Dragons' hope after picking off Krueger and returning it 35 yards.
