Written by Holyoke Enterprise

HHS athletes were recognized Monday, Nov. 23 for accomplishments during the fall sports awards program.

Booster Club president Pat Vasa began the program by introducing himself as the new president. He then turned the stage over to past president Casey Gerk who served as emcee for the night, giving sports wisdom to the athletes through humorous and entertaining stories.

Golf

Coach Garrett Gordon began the awards by handing out letters to the entire golf team. Winners were Duncan Brandt, Geoffrey Mattson, Brian DeBoer, Chris Bieber, Caleb Kafka, Coleton Spitz, Deyten Klein and Keaton Arkulari.

Gordon also recognized Spitz as the first HHS golfer to attend the state tournament since the program began.

DeBoer and Brandt were named to the Academic All-State team.

Students must earn a 3.6-4.0 GPA to make the Academic All-State team and a 3.3-3.59 to earn honorable mention. Brandt was also recognized as the first four-year letterwinner in program history.
