

Aug. 15 races feature flag presentation

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

□□ Dominic Ursetta, left, leads Will Brack around turn three during the modified main Sunday, Aug. 15. The two finished first and second respectively. □□ —Enterprise photo

The second to last night of racing this summer took place Sunday, Aug. 15 at Phillips County Raceway.

The night was highlighted with the BST (Blood, Sweat and Tears) flag presentation when the 19 modified main drivers were given an American flag and drove around the track while the crowd stood to acknowledge them.

Results from each division are as follows in order of placing:

Modified

Dominic Ursetta, Will Brack, Brad Boyer, Brett Smith, Don Shepherd, Brandy Hansen, Eddic Belec, DJ Banks, Dick Brack, Ryan Gaylord, James Krehmeyer, Chuck Jensen, Tyson Groves, John Burrow Jr., Garrett Sporhase, Matt Brack, Zack Hilzer and Jim Gronewold.

Aug. 15 races feature flag presentation

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Sport Mod

Danny Councilman, Brandon Williams, Jacob Adler, Chad Young, Lance Brandt, Mitchell Opatik, Mike Lininger and Britt Geist.

Hobby stock

Mike Woodhead, Ron Edge, Curt Kennedy, Aaron Schwartz, John Groshans, Colt Gibbs, Austin Davis, William McGinnis and Loren Jessen.

Stock

Justin Bussell, Lloyd Meeske, Larry Pollmann, Ivan Wiebke, Shaun Bigham and Jesse Taylor.

The final night of action at Phillips County raceway will feature modifieds, sport mods, stocks and hobby stocks Sunday, Sept. 5 at 6 p.m.