Written by Darci Tomky

□ The Holyoke Lady Dragon varsity basketball team had a tough weekend with two losses to Wray and Burlington on Feb. 6 and 7.

□ “The girls played very hard in both games but couldn’t come away with a win,” said coach Arlan Scholl. While there were positive aspects of each game, Scholl noted they struggled with making some k ey shots during each game.

□ e pointed out the team is improving, and he is pleased with the progress they have made so far this season.

□ he Lady Dragons find themselves in a tough series of games. Scholl said it’s not often they play Wray, the number one ranked 2A team, on Friday and then turn around to play Caliche, the number one ranked 1A team, the following Thursday. “This level of competition should continue to help our team improve for our post season run,” said Scholl.

Burlington started with an 8-7 lead over the Dragons at the end of the first quarter. Holyoke dominated the second quarter with 16 points compared to Burlington's two which gave Holyoke a 23-10 lead at halftime.

Although Holyoke had a strong first half, the Cougars came back to outscore the Dragons 38-13 in the second half.

Choll noted, "It was frustrating to watch our 13-point first half lead disappear against Burlington. We just struggled to handle their quickness and defensive pressure."

While the Dragons suffered a loss according to total points, they excelled in accuracy and rebounds.

Holyoke shot with 43.3 percent accuracy from the field, hitting 13 of 30. Burlington made 15 for 51 for 29.4 percent.

From the line, Holyoke was 10 for 11 for 91 percent while Burlington made only 15 out of 30 free throws for 50 percent accuracy. Carper landed five of six free throws. Starkebaum and Nora Ann Roth both shot two for two from the line.

The Dragons outrebounded the Cougars 23-20, led by Roth with seven. Starkebaum pulled down six and Katie Hoffner four.

Carper and Starkebaum led the team in scoring with 13 and 12 points respectively.

Burlington's Meagan Sullivan led the Cougars to the win with 19 total points including three three-point shots.
