

Ham wins FT contest

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Kenny Ham, father of freshman girls' basketball player KrisAnna Ham, won the fathers' free throw contest held Friday night, Feb. 6 at halftime of the girls' varsity basketball game.

Ham was three for three in his competitive effort, and walked away with winning honors.

The free throw competition featured fathers of both girls' and boys' basketball team members.