

Boys' C basketball team 0-2 for the weekend

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

In boys' C team basketball action over the weekend, Holyoke lost to both Wray and then Burlington on Friday and Saturday. HHS lost in four quarters to Wray, 32-38, and came up short against Burlington in a two-quarter game, 21-14.

Holyoke C 32, Wray 38

The Dragons played catch-up throughout the game against Wray on Friday, after the Eagles took a three-point lead in the first quarter. Holyoke was down by six at the half, with the score 19-13.

In their best period of the game, HHS put up 10 points in the third, including two threes by Alex Quin-tana and Sheng Xuezhi. This brought them within two, 25-23.

Unfortunately for the Dragons, the Eagles were unwilling to hand over the win, and scored another 13 points. Though Xuezhi shot another three, the Dragons couldn't catch up with only nine points, and lost the game by six.

Quintana led in points with 12. Others scoring were Xuezhi with eight, Austin Killin six and Chris Bieber, Brent Vasa and Erik Scharin with two apiece.
