

Harlem Ambassadors set to play in Wray

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

---

Holyoke residents may remember the Harlem Ambassadors basketball team that entered the gym in Holyoke in September 2010. That same team will visit Wray Monday, March 5.

Those wishing to see dazzling ball-handling tricks, high-flying slam dunks and hilarious family comedy are encouraged to attend. Join the Harlem Ambassadors basketball show at 7 p.m. at Wray High School gym as they take on the Wray "Bald" Eagles, a team made up of local residents all beyond high school age and older.

The Wray Rotary Club has partnered with the Harlem Ambassadors to bring them to Wray for an evening of fun and family entertainment

In addition to providing high-quality family entertainment events, the Harlem Ambassadors perform "Stay in School, Stay off Drugs" assembly programs to encourage kids to work hard, respect themselves and their peers, listen to adult authority figures, believe in themselves, set goals and focus on their education so they can achieve their goals.

Tickets for the event are available from any Rotary member. For more information concerning tickets or group sales, people may contact Stan Fisher at 970-630-1139. Proceeds from the event will be used for local community service projects.

Holyoke Enterprise January 19, 2012