Holyoke girls' junior varsity basketball team had a rough weekend, losing in Akron Friday, Jan. 27 and in Caliche Saturday, Jan. 28.

Holyoke JV 26, Akron 52

Holyoke JV girls started off the Akron game well, with a 12-9 lead in the first quarter. They let up in the second period, allowing 18 Akron points to their six.

The Dragons outscored the Rams 6-5 in the third, but another big fourth quarter for Akron—20-2—gave them a strong lead at the buzzer. Holyoke fell to the Rams 26-52.

Megan Vieselmeyer led Dragon scoring with eight points followed by Tia Huffman with six and Zuri Lopez, Stefani Razo and Jordan Bernard four apiece.

Holyoke JV 14, Caliche 47

In Saturday's three-quarter game against Caliche, the Dragons suffered a 14-47 loss to the Buffaloes.

Caliche clearly had the advantage, outscoring Holyoke by a wide margin in all three quarters.

Razo was the high scorer with eight points followed by Huffman, Vieselmeyer and Rosa Ochoa with two apiece.
