

JH girls keep busy

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke's junior high girls' basketball team has kept busy over the past few weeks.

The team traveled to Haxtun Thursday, Feb. 2, hosted Sedgwick County Monday, Feb. 6 and traveled to Yuma Tuesday, Feb. 7.

In Haxtun, all three teams fell to the Bulldogs.

The A team lost 20-43. Brook Prottzman led with eight points, Adi Bencomo six, Megan Parker four and Lori McWilliams two.

The B team fell 4-18. Mackenzie Thompson and Karen Nuñez each had two points.

Karla Hermosillo had four points for the Dragons in the C team's 4-8 loss.

Against Sedgwick County, both the A and B teams lost.

The A team fell 26-30 and was led by Prottzman with eight points, Bencomo and Parker each had six, Roni Beavers four and Kaitlyn Shafer two.

The B team fell 7-23 to the Cougars. Thompson led with three while Nuñez and Megan Humphreys each had two points.

Against Yuma, the A team results were unavailable. The B team lost a very close 18-19 game. Tara Krueger led the team with six points. Jaylene Dominguez and Humphreys each had four while Hermosillo and Thompson had two apiece.
