

Lady Dragon volleyball looks to Yuma in Homecoming match-up

Written by Darci Tomky

A busy week of volleyball left the Lady Dragons with one win and two losses.

Last Tuesday, Sept. 25, the team defeated Sedgwick County in three sets, 25-22, 25-23 and 25-22.

At Akron Thursday, they lost to the Rams 22-25, 11-25 and 14-25.

On their home court Saturday, the Dragons took Caliche to five sets. They won the first 25-19, but the next two went to Caliche, with Holyoke losing 19-25 and 23-25. The fourth was close, with Holyoke winning 27-25. The Dragons couldn't hold on for the win, losing the last game 11-15.

"It was a long week," said coach Michelle Vieselmeyer. "They did well—we are playing some pretty difficult teams."

Serving was key for the Dragons in the Sedgwick County game. Coach Vieselmeyer said the serving was good and that really helped them win the game. She noted Molly Brandt had some good consecutive serves in the first set, with Erin Vieselmeyer pulling out several in a row in the second set.

Maddie King and Lindsay Helgoth also got in some great hits against Sedgwick County, noted coach Vieselmeyer.
