

Lady Dragons stick it to Limon

Written by Brenda Johnson Brandt

“Holyoke really stuck it to Limon on the offensive side of the game,” said HHS softball coach Ashley Clayton after Holyoke’s 27-16 and 15-4 wins at Limon Saturday, Sept. 29.

“Offense continues to get stronger and really makes the Dragons tough competition to face because there’s not one for-sure out in the line-up,” added the coach.

Clayton also noted that defense continues to improve as the girls are becoming better at playing the game of softball with a high level of focus and intensity.

This week, the Lady Dragons will host Akron Saturday, Oct. 6 in a doubleheader beginning at 10 a.m. It marks the last of the regular-season ball games for the Dragons.
