Eleven placewinners, led by three champions, boosted the HHS wrestling team to a first-place finish in the Banner County Invitational Wrestling Tournament in Harrisburg, Neb. Saturday, Dec. 8.

Coach Jack Garrison said the back door finally started working for the team, as wrestlers came back to win after a loss.

The tourney followed somewhat of a round-robin format, but each weight class was set up differently, depending on the number of participants.

Jesus Hermosillo at 195 lbs. and Dylan Kotch at 220 repeated as tourney champions from the previous week and are undefeated on the season. Nicholas Ortner joined the two on the champion stand, winning the 138-lb. class.

Leo Ortiz made it to the championship, finishing second at 160 lbs.
