There's a new authoritative voice and central hub for all things Colorado high school athletics and activities as the Colorado High School Activities Association has launched a new website designed to provide broader promotion of high school activities, CHSAA Commissioner Paul Angelico announced.

The website— CHSAANow.com —will host feature stories, game stories, scores, statistics, rankings and video clips. It will also have a running scores feature of regular season and playoff games, in conjunction with a CHSAA corporate partner MaxPr eps.com
