

Mutton bustin' on Raceway agenda

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Phillips County Raceway action for the 2013 season is down to two more races. And mutton bustin' fun has been added to both, according to BST Racing promoter Joe Bellm.

This Saturday, Aug. 24, PCR will feature seven divisions in one night, along with the mutton bustin' for kids at 50 pounds and under and 12 years and under.

Those interested in the sheep riding fun should contact Bellm at 720-404-0400 or joe@bstracing.com.
