

Race season nears end; mutton bustin' added to the fun

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Tymerlie Wolevar of Haxtun is queen of the sheep as she competes in mutton bustin' at the Phillips County Raceway Saturday, Aug. 24. Close to 20 kids made an attempt at riding the sheep, and the event will return to the raceway at the season finale Saturday, Sept. 14.

—Enterprise photo

Action was solid at the Phillips County Raceway Saturday, Aug. 24 as the crowd took in rainout mains from June 22, seven racing division events and mutton bustin' for the kids.

The night marked the end this season for racing for sprints, midgets and dwarfs.

Race season nears end; mutton bustin' added to the fun

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

IMCA division racing for mods, sport mods, stocks and hobbies will continue in the season finale Saturday, Sept. 14 at the PCR at the Phillips County Fairgrounds in Holyoke.

Mutton bustin' will also return to the arena Sept. 14. Those interested in signing up must be under 50 pounds and 12 years and under. To register for the sheep-riding fun, participants should contact Joe Bellm at 720-404-0400 or joe@bstracing.com.

For the full article, call us at 970-854-2811 to set up an e-Subscription.

Holyoke Enterprise August 29, 2013