

HHS cheerleaders place 3rd in Denver

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke High School's cheer squad took home a third-place finish at the Flip and Shout competition in Denver Saturday, Nov. 30.

Coach Jane Zink said the girls had a great performance and that they received some positive feedback from judges. She added that scoring amongst the three competing teams was close. The competition was the last one for the girls before the state meet Saturday, Dec. 7 in Denver.
