

JV girls split games

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke High School's junior varsity Lady Dragon basketball squad fell to Yuma Tuesday, Dec. 10 and came out of a close match against Liberty Common with a win Thursday, Dec. 12.

Holyoke JV 37, Yuma 48

After taking a 12-10 lead in the first quarter Tuesday, the Holyoke squad could do little to slow Yuma's offense. The Lady Indians went off for 21 points compared to just five for the Lady Dragons in the second quarter as Yuma held on to a 31-17 lead at half.

Holyoke began to chip away at the deficit in the second half, outscoring Yuma 11-9 in the third quarter. The lead proved to be too big to overcome. Even though Holyoke won the fourth quarter 9-8, Yuma walked away with a 48-37 victory.

To read the full article, call us about an e-Subscription. 970-854-2811

Holyoke Enterprise December 19, 2013