

C team basketball boys start season 2-0

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

C team players on the HHS boys' basketball squad dominated their competition to open the season, earning a pair of double-digit wins Tuesday Dec. 10 with Yuma and Thursday, Dec. 12 over Liberty Common.

Holyoke C 61, Yuma 26

HHS controlled the Tuesday game from the get-go, outscoring Yuma 31-18 in the first half. Holyoke continued to put up big offensive numbers in the second half as they coasted to a 61-26 win.

Austin Herman accounted for 15 points to lead the team while Alex Strauss was close behind with 12. Zach Churchwell added nine points, Ben Sumners six, Jahir Gardea four, Tyler Camblin, Edwin Cruz and Brenden Kage three each and Alan Madrid, Eddie Marroquin and Erick Zink two apiece.

To read the full article, call us about an e-Subscription. 970-854-2811

Holyoke Enterprise December 19, 2013