

JV girls end season with a win over SC

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

In the last week of the season for junior varsity girls' basketball, Holyoke earned a 1-1 record. After falling to Akron at home Thursday, Feb. 20, the Lady Dragons finished out the season with a road victory over Sedgwick County Friday, Feb. 21.

Holyoke JV 25, Akron 41

HHS hosted Akron for the final junior varsity home game of the season Thursday, losing to the visiting team 25-41.

After the first period, Holyoke trailed 4-9, but the second quarter is where the Lady Rams did the most damage. On the heels of a 7-17 second quarter, Holyoke found themselves down 11-26 at half. The two teams were fairly even in the second half, but Akron outscored Holyoke 15-14 in the final two periods to secure a 41-25 win.

To read the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Holyoke Enterprise February 27, 2014