

HHS to graduate 32

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Thirty-two students in Holyoke High School's Class of 2010 will be recognized at Commencement exercises this Sunday, May 16 at 2 p.m. in the HHS gym.

A Baccalaureate service will begin at 1 p.m. in the HHS auditorium. The service is being coordinated by Holyoke Ministerial Alliance and Pastor Gary Rahe of Zion Lutheran Church will be the speaker.

Commencement will be highlighted with special music by the high school choir and junior and senior high bands. The choir will sing Breakaway while the bands will perform Zeal along with the processional music. The band is under the direction of Pat Wiebers, and the choir Marcia Dalton.

Citizenship award winners will be recognized by American Legion Post 90 and its Auxiliary.

Counselor Summer Maloney will announce scholarships while school board members Kris Camblin and Kim Killin hand out diplomas. HHS Principal Susan Ortner will present the class.

Supt. Bret Miles will give the welcome at Sunday's graduation, while Duncan Brandt will give the class farewell.

Valedictorian and salutatorian honors will not be announced until Friday, May 14. Those students will speak at graduation.

Members of the Class of 2010 are Bianca Marie Acosta, Larry Glen Banaka, Severine Barras, Ryan Alex Baumgartner, Shelby Taylor Beavers, Shaun Michel Beck, Duncan Alan Brandt, Nicole Marie Brandt, Kyle Brent Carper, Megan Lee Colglazier, Emily Renee Daniel.
