

Re-1J to meet at 7 p.m.

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

With the time change from Daylight Savings Time, Holyoke School District Re-1J Board of Education meetings now begin at 7 p.m.

The next regular meeting is set for Tuesday, Nov. 16 at 7 p.m. in Holyoke Junior High Room #218.

Included in the superintendent's report will be Standard of Excellence committee report, elementary standards-based report card and a budget report.

Action items on the agenda include October student count and approval of non-resident students.

Board member items include discussion of policies on instruction, school/community/home relations and education agency relations. Local administration of Colorado's social services system will also be discussed.

A work session with the Foundation is scheduled at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.
