

Walter earns B.A. degree from CCU

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Marcia Walter earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in early childhood education from Colorado Christian University Dec. 17, 2011.

She completed her student teaching at Holyoke Elementary School in the fall of 2011 before returning to the Dragon's Wagon Preschool to resume her role there as director/teacher.

Walter graduated with university honors. She was inducted into Alpha Sigma Lambda-Sigma Nu April 22 on the CCU campus in Lakewood.

ASL was founded in 1946 specifically to honor the achievements of adult undergraduate students. The Alpha Sigma Lambda distinction places students in the top 10 percent of CAGS undergraduate students.

A graduation reception was held at CCU's Sterling site on the NJC campus on April 30. Those attending with Walter included Jan Walter, Martha Kinnie and Lauren Newman.
