

Grade schoolers get in the Christmas mood during program

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Christmas was clearly in the air Thursday night, Dec. 6 during the annual Elementary Christmas Program. Students in kindergarten and second- and fourth-grades performed numerous songs, jokes and skits to entertain the crowd.

Up first were the kindergarten classes. They sang One Little, Two Little, Three Little Snowflakes, See the Snowflakes Falling, This is my Candy Cane, Eight Reindeer, If I Could Fly Like a Snowflake, Jolly Jolly Santa, Snowman Jump and Santa Claus Rock. They wrapped their portion of the concert up with numerous Jingle Bells variations.

Members of the kindergarten class were all smiles during their performance last Thursday night. Pictured from left, front row, Dahiria Castillo Marquez, Dakota Custard, Saul Hernandez and Evan Widler; and back row, Braxten Churchwell, Emma Marie Sprague, Gustavo Goytia, Morgan Vernon and Parker Steggs. —Enterprise photo

A fourth-grade special group took to the stage next. Kylie Purkeypile, Haley Van Overbeke, Rylee Schneller, Ashley Rahe, Emali Torres, Yovanna Iniguez, Amy Mackay, Blanca Martinez, Jacqui Gonzalez Burciaga, Riley Ferguson, Kayle Weatherly and Loren Jo Oberle teamed up to perform Little Star.

Taking the stage next were the second-graders. They began by singing Season of Bells. A Silly Holiday Song followed with jokesters Evan Jones, Caitlynn Deaver, JC Steggs, Cooper Goldenstein, Isaiah Rahe, Ethan Schneller, Jadon Frost, Alexie Metzger, Cesilia Iniguez, Max Dirks, Gehrig Thompson, Miranda Morales and Mariana Varela entertaining the crowd.

