

School's out for the summer!

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Swarms of smiles and cheering kids flooded out of Holyoke schools Friday, May 24 as the kids officially entered into summer vacation.

Some children said their goodbyes to teachers as friends, such as Jimena and Fatima Nuñez who shared a hug with elementary school counselor Sharon Jones before leaving, and some kids immediately began celebrating.

Remington Hielscher and Anthony Rojo exited the building with big grins as Hielscher began spraying silly string into the air.☺☺☺
