

Ella Stewart has been selected for inclusion in the 2014 edition of “Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.”

Stewart, a junior at Eureka College in Eureka, Ill., was selected based on academic achievement, community service, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success.

Stewart was also named to the Dean’s List for the fall semester. To be eligible, full-time students must maintain a GPA of at least 3.5.

A 2011 HHS graduate, Stewart is the daughter of Troy and Mardi Stewart of Holyoke.

Chesna (Rafert) Smith has been named to the fall semester Dean’s List at Casper College in Casper, Wyo.

The Dean’s List consists of students who achieve a minimum of a 3.7 GPA.

Smith is a 2006 HHS graduate and the daughter of Lenny and Peggy Rafert of Holyoke.

Alyssa Roll has been named to the Dean’s Honor Roll for the 2013 fall semester at NJC. Students who achieve a 3.5-3.74 GPA while completing a minimum of 12 academic credits are eligible for the Dean’s Honor Roll.

Roll is a sophomore at NJC, studying equine management. She is the daughter of Jeff and Laura Roll of Holyoke.
