

20 FBLA members to compete at state in Vail

Written by Holyoke Enterprise

Holyoke FBLA chapter members attended the district conference at NJC Wednesday, Feb. 12. Thirteen HHS students qualified for state at the district conference and another seven students will compete at state-only projects.

The 51st annual FBLA state leadership conference is scheduled for April 27-29 in Vail. Chapter voting reps who will be attending state are Meg Strauss, president; Kaylee Ham, vice president; and Anastasia Conklin, reporter.

Those who qualified for state at districts are A.J. Brandt, first, network concept; Bradley Cumming, second, business math; Conklin, second, job interview; Trevor Dalton, Logan Tharp, Audi Peña, Tia Huffman and Maddie King, second, parliamentary procedure; and Saul Ramos, Alan Madrid, Eric Rojo, Javy Rojo and Fernando Rojo, third, parliamentary procedure.

For the full article, subscribe to our e-Edition. Call 970-854-2811.

Holyoke Enterprise February 20, 2014